Order of Worship

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent preparation for the worship of God.

Prelude Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty! Nicaea
 Youth Orchestra
 (The tune may be found at Hymn 1 in Glory to God.)

Introit Christ the Lord Is Risen Again Christ Ist Erstanden
 Chancel Choir (15th-c. German Easter carol)
 Christ the Lord is risen again. Christ has broken every chain.
 Hark, the angels shout for joy, singing evermore on high: Alleluia!
 - Michael Weiße (c.1480 – 1534); trans. Catherine Winkworth (1858)

 Call to Worship Psalm 103

One: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Many: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and do not forget all his benefits.

One: The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

Many: For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him.

One: As a father has compassion for his children, so the Lord has compassion for those who fear him.

Many: Bless the Lord, O my soul!

 Hymn 245 Christ the Lord Is Risen Today! Llanfair

 Corporate Prayer of Confession

Gracious heavenly Father, your love for us is unbreakable and unshakable. But we confess that our devotion to you is often as fickle as the spring weather. We proclaim the good news that Christ is risen, but then we go about our lives as if he were still in the tomb. Forgive our unbelief. Fill our hearts with the hope of Easter, that we might serve you with joy and gratitude and freedom. In the name of your risen Son we pray.

 Silent Prayer of Confession

 Assurance of Pardon

One: Friends, this is the Good News of the Gospel.

Many: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

 Gloria Patri (Hymn 581)

At the end of each pew is a Friendship Pad. Please indicate your presence by signing it and passing it along the row. Members, make a point to greet visitors sitting near you.

Scripture Reading

Mark 9:14-29

When they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and some scribes arguing with them. When the whole crowd saw him, they were immediately overcome with awe, and they ran forward to greet him. He asked them, "What are you arguing about with them?" Someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought you my son; he has a spirit that makes him unable to speak; and whenever it seizes him, it dashes him down; and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid; and I asked your disciples to cast it out, but they could not do so." He answered them, "You faithless generation, how much longer must I be among you? How much longer must I put up with you? Bring him to me." And they brought the boy to him. When the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. Jesus asked the father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood. It has often cast him into the fire and into the water, to destroy him; but if you are able to do anything, have pity on us and help us." Jesus said to him, "If you are able! —All things can be done for the one who believes." Immediately the father of the child cried out, "I believe; help my unbelief!" When Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You spirit that keeps this boy from speaking and hearing, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!" After crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, "He is dead." But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he was able to stand. When he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" He said to them, "This kind can come out only through prayer."

One: The Word of the Lord.

Many: Thanks be to God.

Sermon

I Believe; Help My Unbelief!

Rev. Kevin J. Long

* Affirmation of Faith

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

* Hymn 231
